

Name: _____

English Lesson 2: Student Worksheet

The goal of this activity is to help you relate your work values to your future lifestyle.

(Note: You must complete the Super's Work Values Inventory Assessment to participate in this activity.)

- Log on to <http://www.indianacareerexplorer.org/>. Select Sign In and then enter your username and password. Next, click Sign Me In.
- Click on My Assessments and select My Assessment Results.
- Click on the arrow icon across from Super's Work Values Inventory - revised.
- What is your top work value? _____

- Click on the name of the work value and write its definition here:

- Discuss how you see this work value affecting your life now and during adulthood.

- What jobs do you think would fit with this work value?

- What is your second highest work value? _____

- Click on the name of the work value and write its definition here:

- Discuss how you see this work value affecting your life now and during adulthood.

- What jobs do you think would fit with this work value?

- What is your third highest work value? _____
 - Click on the name of the work value and write its definition here:

 - Discuss how you see this work value affecting your life now and during adulthood.

 - What jobs do you think would fit with this work value?

- Click on the Related Occupations tab.
 - Look at the list of occupations. Write down three that might interest you as a career choice. Click on each occupation to learn more about it.

Top Occupation: _____

Second Occupation: _____

Third Occupation: _____

An Additional Assignment

On a separate sheet of paper, write a five-paragraph essay on how your work values will impact the following aspects of your adult life: family, friendships, travel, free time, and hobbies.